TO HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

.UBJECT: March of Dimes

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralpsis have quested that all members of the Armed Forces and Federal ployees be advised that the March of Dimes, for policy and or found-raising in the Federal establishment. The Foundation policy requires it to decline or to return any contributions collected under the Federal program. Therefore, the Marine Limes should not be listed among the agencies participating in the Federal plan. In this connection, it should also noted that the listing of "causes" such as "Folio is provided by the Federal plan.

The fact that up to this time the March of Dimes has decided not to avail itself of the opportunity to participate in the world-wide Federal fund-raising program should in the way deter Federal employees and members of the Armed Forces from making their contributions for carrying out the Foundation's worthy objectives through methods of solicitation outside of Federal establishments.

In order to avoid any confusion or misunderstanding concerning the March of Dimes, the foregoing should be immediately called to the attention of all Federal employees and members of the Armed Forces.
